

Enterprise Newsletter summer 2 2024

Welcome back to our final half term of this academic year! It has flown by! Our new topic is 'Hunted' - we will be learning about the kingdom of Benin (West Africa). This half term is jam-packed with enrichment too; Fit Fortnight, art week and much more!

Have a look at our topic web for more detail on the school website: Classes → Enterprise-what's new? It is also on Dojo for you to see. →

Important weekly bits and bobs:

- CGP books home on Tuesdays. Due back in the following Monday.
- PE days are Tuesday (swimming) and Friday each week. So please, full kits to be worn those days. Please also ensure pumps are in school too.
- Fit Fortnight - PE kits and trainers every day for two weeks please (24th June - 5th July).
- Spelling books sent in every Friday. New spellings will go home Friday too. So please send spelling books every Friday.

Reading:

Our focus on reading is to build fluency, confidence and pleasure. We will continue to do this through our John Murray reading sessions and class novel time. We ask that your child continues to read every night that you record this in the reading record book. Books will be changed Mondays and Thursdays. If you need more books at another point just ask ☺ It is vital for your child's progress that your child reads every day at home.

Thank you to everyone supporting homework, it makes a huge difference.

Times Tables, Maths Homework and Spelling:

- Please continue to play TTRS ☺ Ask if you need login support. We will sort out the new children with logins next week.
- CGP homework books will go home/set on a Tuesday and due the following Monday.
- Spellings will be sent out every Friday. These will be based on the spelling rules taught that week.

PE:

Please ensure your child has wears their PE kit on the below days - please ensure it is labelled

- Tuesday: swimming with Mrs Horn
- Friday: Athletics with Mrs Lever
- Daily: Daily skip and time on the gym equipment!

As always, our door is always open and you are welcome to come and speak with us after school. Our Class Dojo is checked daily and any messages answered as quickly as we possibly can. If you need to see us to discuss your child, please make an appointment with us through Dojo.

Reminder, contact Mrs Horn Monday - Wednesday and Mrs Lever Wednesday - Friday.

Thank you for all your support, Mrs Horn, Mrs Lever and Team Enterprise!
